

THE ART OF ANTI-CORRUPTION: WINNERS OF THE ZCC COMIC CONTEST

Creativity for Compliance

Thumbprints' Managing Director and Deputy Managing Director.

>>> OUR COMMITMENT TO HONESTY AND INTEGRITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR BUSINESS.

The recent Comic Strip Competition, organized by our Zero Corruption Committee (ZCC), was a vibrant way for our staff to internalize these values and stand united against corruption.

The judging panel noted the difficulty in choosing a winner due to the thoughtful and impactful nature of the entries.

Congratulations to Matthew Chin from the Production Department! His comic, titled 'Integrity: The Real Superpower,' brilliantly illustrated that integrity starts with personal commitment, using a single, memorable strip to emphasize the necessity of honest documentation and ethical reporting."

"It is inspiring to see our team use humour and creativity to tackle such a crucial topic. These comics prove that embedding anti-corruption practices is a collective responsibility, and our team is ready to champion it."

Chai Chin, HR Manager

Second place: Tharcana A/P Satheskuma, R&D Department

CONQUERING CORRUPTION WITH CREATIVITY

The Comic Strip Competition builds on the ZCC's tradition of engaging activities, following the successful Anti-Corruption Logo Design competition—the results of which are still proudly worn on our company T-shirts—and our mandatory 2024 Anti-Corruption Training sessions that ensure all staff are up-to-date with our latest policies and the MACC Act Section 17A.

While the competition is over, the commitment continues. We encourage everyone to carry the spirit of Honesty and Integrity into every decision.

To encourage continuous awareness, the top-ranked entries are now proudly displayed at the company entrance. Furthermore, we invite all staff members to view the full gallery of creative submissions by visiting the 'Zero Corruption Initiatives' section on the company website.
